BUFF AND BLUE DROPS TWO GAMES

Late Innings Fatal in Home Contests With Syracuse and St. Lawrence

ERRORS BRING DEFEATS

The varsity was defeated in both home games last week, losing to Syracuse 7-1 on Tuesday and to St. Lawrence by a 4-0 score on Saturday. In the Syracuse game Baumler pitched good ball allowing that hard hitting aggregation only six hits, and the hitting of the varsity improved, but seven errors were accountable for the defeat. On Saturday, failure to hit in the pinches and poor fielding were responsible for the shut-out.

Five Innings Scoreless

Baumler started off well against Syracuse, allowing only one hit in the first six innings, but in the sixth the visitors secured one run on an error, and in the fateful eighth, tallied five. In the third and sixth innings Hamilton advanced men to third, but failure to secure hits prevented them from scoring. In the ninth Schwarzer's three bagger gave Syracuse another run, and Powers after knocking a two base hit, scored Hamilton's only run on an error.

The mound honors were about evenly divided, each pitcher striking out six men and allowing six hits. Brown, Syracuse's captain, who did such disastrous work with the stick the Saturday before, failed to get a bingle. The score:

FIVE MEN LEAVE FOR CAMP DEVENS

Hamilton Quota for Fourth O. T. C. to Report To-morrow

Five Hamilton men will report to-morrow at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., as members of the Hamilton quota for the Fourth Officers' Reserve Training Camp to be maintained by the National Army division stationed there. The names of the men have been announced as follows:

Charles McLouth, Jr., '16, Carleton C. Young, '17, Philip C. Jessup, ex-'18, Henry W. Griffith, '18, George T. Link, '18, and Paul D. Hasbrouck, '18, alternate.

As the Hamilton representative to the Junior Plattsburg Training Camp, the Department of Military Science has named Fursman, '19. He received his appointment last week ordering him to report June 29.

Pres. Ferry announced last week that the outlook was promising for an R. O. T. C. unit on the Hill next year. This would necessitate several changes in the military organization. All night guard duty would be required, and fuller equipment supplied by the government.

Later news in the press indicated that all colleges would be put under a new plan for military training. Experienced officers would be furnished, and enlistment of every college student urged. These training units would supply men for future O. T. C. encampments.

Under either plan, next year's training will be carried out on a larger scale than at present.

PRISONER IN GERMANY

Don Stone, '13, Falls Behind Enemy Lines After Air Battle

Donald E. Stone, '13, of Mexico, N. Y., a member of the Lafayette Flying Squadron, is reported in a Paris dispatch dated May 11 as missing. It is said that he is probably a prisoner in Germany. His machine was seen by infantry observers to fall behind the lines after a fight in which nine French airplanes and thirteen German machines were engaged.

Stone was a member of Alpha Delta Phi, of Pentagon and Phi Beta Kappa, of Life Board for four years and "Lit" for three. He was president of his class freshman year, a varsity football man for four years, and captain of the team senior year; McKinney Prize Speaker, a member of the Executive Council, and prominent in other College affairs.

—Word has been received from George R. Eddy, '12, that he has arrived safely overseas.

—An official post-card received on the Hill last week states that E. F. Scott, ex-'19, has arrived safely in France. Scott will drive a suuply truck.

SUB-FRESHMEN ENTERTAINED AT COLLEGE SMOKER FRIDAY

Seventy-Five High School Men Spend Week-end on Hill as Guests of College

PREX WELCOMES VISITORS

Entertainment for the sub-freshmen visitors started Friday evening with a smoker in Commons. The hall was completely filled, which meant about two hundred and fifty present, including about 75 visitors. A number of songs kept up the interest until the eatables were brought forth. D. T. headed the program with plenty of noise and action. Their quartet was endured with surprising patience.

Prex Quotes Statistics

Dr. Wood presided and introduced Pres. Ferry as the first speaker. Prex offered several new jokes before he introduced his main topic—the necessity of the college and its product in war times. He referred to the advice of military and educational authorities both in this country and in Europe, that it was more essential than ever that the colleges continue to train men. With some very interesting figures Dr. Ferry proved the success of college men disproportional to their numerical strength in various fields of work. He also made the surprising statement to the sub-freshmen that their total income for their life would be increased by nine dollars for every day they attended high school and forty dollars for every college recitation which they attended. Lowell clinched the point later by asking the professors to be careful not to cut classes.

Dr. Davenport, who was scheduled to speak, could not be present. Prof. Lewis read from the report of an army officer to prove the value of public speaking to all candidates for commissions. He also emphasized the importance of Dr. Ferry's remark that the men should keep on with their college work as long as possible. As an interlude Pritchett, '21, hypnotized the piano for several pieces.

Lowell and Clum Speak

For the undergraduates Lowell talked on the value and meaning of college spirit. Clum threw a different light on the same subject. The quartet gave an excellent appearance and were called back for three encores. Dr. Wood closed the meeting with a short tribute to the men in the service and the two alumni who have made the supreme sacrifice.

—Professor Lewis was one of the judges at the Talcott prize speaking contest at Waterville, May 3.

—President Ferry attended the 99th annual commencement of Colgate University last week and addressed a meeting of Phi Beta Kappa.

Hamlin Appoints Next Year's Cabinet

Managers' Office Among Innovations in Silliman Hall

With the new administration in charge, the College Y. M. C. A. has started active work for the next year. Silliman Hall is being cleaned and will be ready for use by the college at once. At a meeting held in chapel Friday morning, Gardner F. Parks, '19, of Newport, was elected Vice-President. President Hamlin has appointed his Cabinet which will take charge of the different committees at once.

The Cabinet

Paul Hamlin, '19, President; Gardner F. Parks, '19, vice-president; Edgar Couper, '20, Treasurer; Monteith Harper, '21, secretary. Committee on Membership, Ackler and Perkins, '19; Boy's Work Committee, Gorman and Johnson, '20. Vicinity Work, Hutchinson, '19; Committee on Speakers, Kneeland, '20; Mission Study Work, Fry, '21; Entertainment Committee, Bratton, '19, Keane and Merritt, '20; Social Study, Reed, '19.

President Hamlin is anxious that the Y. M. C. A. become a vital part of the social life of the college and has decided upon several innovations in the workings of the Y. M. C. A. during the coming year. Silliman Hall is to be partly redecorated and the interior made as attractive as possible. New furnishings will also be added. The scheme for activities next year contains the plans for frequent socials and receptions and as many lectures and talks as can be arranged. One of the principal purposes of the new administration is to make the College Y. M. C. A. the guide for social activities held on the Hill during the next year.

Room for Managers

A room is to be set aside in Silliman Hall for the exclusive use of the Managers of the different college activities. This will be a place where they may hold their conferences and make their headquarters for the business of the various departments. This room will also be at the disposal of the executive council and the Honor Court for their meetings.

STONE, '78, FINDS LIFE IN FRANCE INTERESTING

Has Been Overseas Two Years—Sees Romance and Courage in French People

Rev. Carlos H. Stone, '78, who has been engaged in war work during the last two years, and is now in France, recently wrote the following to his boys' school at Cornwall-on-Hudson:

"I have a little room, a billet, we say over here, in a quaint, old house—'c'est tres vieux' the good woman who cares for my room tells me. The house is on a very narrow side street, and the street and the house remind me of fifteenth and sixteenth century France. A taper is burning on the narrow stone staircase, when I come into the silent house at night. The big key hangs above the door, just as it may have hung for some roistering French lodger, three or four hundred years ago. I feel in the dark for the big key-hole, as he may have done with less certain touch ,for I am no roisterer.

"If it is a cold night, I find a cozy fire of fagots in my tiny fire-place, to give a weird light to the room, and a cheerful welcome to me. If I do not have pressing work, I sit for awhile by the fire without lighting the lamp, and let the fire and my imagination make pictures of what may have happened in the street and in my room, centuries ago.

"My good French woman puts an ancient bed-warmer in my great bed at night, and she brings me a big can of hot water in the morning. By the time I am dressed, she brings me my breakfast, always a big bowl—a bowl, mind you, no niggardly cup—of hot chocolate, some toasted crusts of bread, which I have brought from the canteen, a petite omlette, and a pot of comfiture. If the morning is very cold, I take my breakfast in her tiny kitchen, with my back to the kitchen fire. It is all very quaint and comfortable.

Great Sacrifices of French

"My other meals are taken at a secretaries' mess, where we are again well cared for by a French woman who has opened her house to us. In the little dining-room, a photograph of a young soldier in the jaunty French uniform, hangs over the mantel. Beside the photograph hang a revolver and two pipes, and the croix de guerre and two framed citations. It is the shrine of a mother's sorrow and a mother's love, and a mother's pride. She told us about it one evening when she was serving us at dinner. He was a young fellow of 22. He was killed in the battle of the Somme. She keeps a smiling face and a good heart in spite of her lost soldier son.

"One of the speakers at our Washington's birthday celebration was a French gentleman who had eight sons when the war began. They are all gone, and he speaks of it without bitterness ,and his spirit is not crushed. There is something very fine in the courage and endurance of the French. It would have been a great misfortune to the world if they had been overwhelmed by the kultur of iron and blood.

"But if I keep on, I shall be keeping as late hours as the roistering lodger of three centuries ago, and my hot water can will have taken a midnight chill."

Pay Up

The present time is not a time to be careless. The decreased enrollment makes it all the more necessary for every college activity to have the loyal support of every undergraduate. 'Hard times' is no excuse for men not redeeming financial pledges, as this argument works as well one way as it does the other.

We refer to the specific instances of Y. M. C. A. dues and orders for the Hamilton Book of Verse. About thirty five men in college at the present time have failed to pay their Association dues of $1.50, and a like number still owe for the Book of Verse.

Several colleges have adopted the custom of having an annual spring "pay-up" day, when an effort is made to have all college obligations settled. After this day, unless delinquents can furnish a good excuse, their names are publicly posted. We do not favor such a plan here, but are in sympathy with its purpose. If you are in the delinquent class, be honest and pay up.

Accurate Knowledge of the War

Criticism and discussion of governmental policies in wartime may be valid or they may be harmful. It all depends upon the judgment and information possessed by the individual who does the talking.

The much exercised American prerogative of free speech has found and will continue to find a vast field for its outlet in war situations. College students and college professors—the same as everyone else—are talking about the War. Nor is it wrong that they should be. They may be, it is true, great offenders if they take a stand on grounds of ignorance or misinformation. But college men may just as truly be powerful defenders if they labor in the promotion of acurate knowledge about the War,—defenders of the Allies, of their own country, and of the colleges as places of learning.

There is nothing more ludicrous or pathetic than to hear a man argue about some great question of the World War about which he possesses absolutely no definite information. True, even the highest officials and greatest thinkers cannot tell us definitely of the future. But what knowledge there is available of the past and present should be a constant field of inquiry for the college man.

The United States government, fully realizing the importance of the dissemination of correct knowledge, has, thru the Committee on Public Information, issued the War Information Series of pamphlets. These handbooks are issued because of a belief that "this war is not to be won by an established doctrine nor by an official theory, but by an enlightened opinion based upon truth," and furthermore that "the facts of history and life are the only arsenals to which Americans need resort in order to defend the justice of their cause."

A large number of these pamphlets have been issued, and more are in preparation. In limited numbers, these are free to all citizens. There are three in particular which the government wishes everyone to have in his possession and read thoroughly this week. They are "Conquest and Kultur," "German War Practices," and "Why America Fights Germany." They will be sent free to anyone who sends in the coupon below.

Men of Hamilton, it is up to you to get busy and know the facts before you tell what you would do "if you were President"!

—Rev. L. G. Colson, '87, has been granted an indefinite leave of absence from his work as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Camden, in order that he may continue his Army work at Camp Devens.

—Herbert F. Thompson, ex-'20, is now a sergeant in the 326th Infantry, stationed at Camp Upton. He has recently been transferred from the 326th Motor Ambulance Company, whcih was at Camp Gordon, Ga.

—On April 25 a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Brandt of New York City. Mr. Brandt is a son of Prof. Brandt, '72, and is a member of the class of '04.

—Vincent Peck, '16, who is in the Headquarters Company, 107th U. S. Inf., has been transferred from Camp Wadsworth, S. C., to Camp Stuart, Newport News, Va.

St. Lawrence 4, Hamilton 0

By striking out fourteen men and allowing only five hits, Goldsmith was able to shut out the Buff and Blue on Saturday. The St. Lawrence team secured seven hits to our five, and managed to score four runs. For the first six innings each team received goose eggs in the run column, but the visitors tallied once in the seventh and eighth, and twice in the ninth. Powers and Pritchard got as far as third, but the inability of their teammates to hit, prevented them from scoring. Powers secured 2 of Hamilton's five hits, and Goldsmith hit safely three out of four times at bat. The score:

Spice o' Life

Weakly News

When Syracuse came to the Hill,
And beat the Buff and Blue,
It bade my Muse of Verse be still,
So with a word I'm through.

The only thing that's come to pass,
Since 'bout a week ago,
Is that our "Trottie" cut a class,
Unusual as we know.

Subfreshmen, they have come again,
We hope they liked the college.
For Hamilton flings wide her door
To fellows seeking knowledge.

Always Thus

The laundry man was energetically cranking his Twin-Two in front of Carnegie the other afternoon. After spinning the crank for a period of five minutes without receiving even a snort in reply, the L. M. was in an amiable enough mood to put the darn thing in his pocket and walk home. Just at this critical moment, a window opened on the top floor and an unseen voice remarked, "Be careful, Mister Westcott, don't wind it too tight."

Who is this fellow Noah Ward who is winning all the prizes?

Ev'thing in His Place

Jim Peters, prospector for "Bugs'" flower-hunting expedition, found some Dutchman's Pantaloons in Herr Merz's orchard.

On the same trip Bill Bolenius, advance man of the exped., spied some Summer Firs in Root's garden and scared up a coupla darn good looking chickens under them.

'Twas some trip, sez Bill.

—Prof. Earl W. Anibal, '08, of the Oneonta Normal School, was on the Hill Saturday.

CAMPAIGN FOR WAR PUBLICITY IN COLLEGES

Collegiate Committee Cooperating With Government in Distributing Booklets

Some time ago a war council of college publications was held in New York City, at the request of Mr. George Creel, Chairman of the Committee on Public Information at Washington. This conference appointed a committee of college editors to cooperate with the Committee on Public Information, in laying before college students accurate information about the war.

This committee at the present time, is carrying on a vigorous campaign to place Government war information booklets in the hands of college students. By filling in the coupon printed in other columns, you can secure three of these free.

CONQUEST AND KULTUR. Hundreds of quotations from the writings of leading German statesmen, professors, and publicists, revealing the Prussian idea of conquest. One section is devoted to Germany's designs upon the United States with special reference to the Monroe doctrine. 160 pages with comprehensive map.

GERMAN WAR PRACTICES. Prussianism in all its horror. Methods of the German military machine. Documentary proofs of German official brutalities upon civilians. Narrating instances of frightfulness taken directly from German sources.

WHY AMERICA FIGHTS GERMANY. A statement why the United States entered the war. Deals with offences of Germany against America and against the world. The case in a nutshell written in plain language.

—Nearly half the entire student body of R. P. I. took part in some form of competitive athletics during the last year, according to the report of Wilbur C. Bachelor ,professor of physical education at that institution.

—Three N. Y. U. Ambulance Units are in service at the front in France now. All three units were across the water and in service before the order disbanding units as a department of the United States war organization went into effect.

—The Harvard-Yale varsity boat race will be rowed on the Housatonic River at Derby, Conn., on June 1. On the same day the second crews of each university will race on the Charles river. The freshman crews will compete on May 25.

—Columbia University has announced the names of fourteen graduates of classes running back to 1885 who have died in the service of the United States. The list includes a lieutenant colonel, three majors, one captain and several other officers.

—Harvard is being hard hit by the war. This year their athletic treasury is expected to show a deficit for the year. For the last ten years, major sports have fully paid the expenses of the minor sports, but this year baseball and football have not been profitable on account of their informal nature.

UNION AND R. P. I. OPPONENTS ON DIAMOND AND TRACK

Stiff Home Games for Varsity This Week-end

This week the varsity will face two strong teams on the home diamond, and if comparing scores counts for anything, they will have to put up a better brand of baseball to win.

Union will be seen on the Hill on Thursday afternoon. They have broken about even with their schedule so far, winning from N. Y. U. 4-3, R. P. I. 7-6 in ten innings, and losing to Columbia, Pelham Bay and Rutgers by small scores. They lost to Wesleyan Saturday 7-6.

R. P. I. comes here Saturday. They defeated St. Lawrence 9-2, and Stevens Tech 5-4, in a fifteen inning game.

Troy Athletes Will Meet Local Runners on Saturday

The R. P. I. track team which comes to the Hill on Saturday is somewhat of an unknown quantity. They have had no meets so far, and have had some difficulty in getting a sufficient number of men out for practice. The local entries have not yet been chosen, but a large number have been seen in action in the intramural meets. Competitors will be chosen largely on the basis of work done in these meets. Valentine, Moore, Reed, Peters, and Holler are trying the sprints; Couper and Moore the 440; Kneeland and De Santis, the distances, with numerous candidates in the field events.

Buffs and Grays Win Baseball Contests

New Diamonds Used for First Time Last Week

Thursday afternoon two five inning games between the Buffs and Whites and the Blues and Grays were played on the new diamonds, recently built west of the new athletic field. The Buffs defeated the Whites 10-7, and the Grays beat the Blues 13-8. In the Buff and White game Pierce, '21, was the first to make a run. Ritterbush, Cobb and Kaiser, '20, made up the Buff battery, and Bratton, Gray and Stone, the White.

In the Blue and Gray game both nines started out with runs, and a lively fight followed. In the fourth the Grays ran away with the game, scoring seven runs. The winning battery was composed of Moore, '18, and Van Hoesen.

The Grays triumphed over the Blues on the cinders Saturday afternoon by a score of 59½ to 54½. As the meet was held before the baseball game, there were fewer entries than usual. Prof. Hastings to Enter Y. M. C. A. Service

Another Member of Faculty Resigns for War Work—To Go July 1

Announcement is just made that Professor Harold R. Hastings, assistant Professor of Latin and Greek, has resigned his chair in Hamilton to become an Army Y. M. C. A. secretary. It is understood that Dr. Hastings has for a year felt the urgency of this call to service, and practically completed his arrangements last fall. He is under contract to begin his new duties on July first.

Dr. Hastings does not yet know where he will be assigned, and may leave his family in Clinton for the coming year. It is expected that his extensive knowledge of foreign languages, including even modern Greek, will make him valuable either in connection with the foreign recruits in this country or in France.

Seven Years at Hamilton

After seven years of faithful and efficient service here, his going will leave a gap in the College. He has always been interested in the College men and in the College activities, serving for two years as treasurer of the Association for Undergraduate Activities.

He is a member of the Skenandoa Club in Clinton, of St. James Episcopal Church, of the Clinton Unit of the N. Y. Home Defense Reserve, and has otherwise been prominent in the community. His succesor has not been announced.

Dr. Hastings received the A.B. degree from Dartmouth in 1900; A.M. from Harvard in 1902; Ph.D. from Wisconsin in 1910. He was Classical Fellow at Athens for two years, and taught in Princeton and Dartmouth before coming to Hamilton. He is a member of the American Philological Association, and is an editorial contributor to the American Journal of Archaeology.

DR. FERRY SPEAKING

Holyoke Alumnae Association at its luncheon in Utica Saturday on "The New Citizenship." Sunday evening he addressed the parishioners of the Wolcott Memorial Church in New York Mills.

An important meeting at which he represented the college on Thursday was the annual conference of the New England Association of College Administrative Officers. This Friday he will attend a conference of the Insurance and Annuity Association of vancement of Teaching, in New York.
